An arrhythmia is a fast, slow or irregular heart rhythm and affects over four million people in the US alone. Arrhythmia Alliance supports patients, caregivers and healthcare professionals.

We provide:

✅ Online forum to share information, questions and advice

✅ Information written by experts about all areas of arrhythmias including diagnosis, treatments and devices

✅ Advice on all aspects of living with an arrhythmia, such as travel, monitoring and physical activity

✅ Access to support groups to share experiences with others with an arrhythmia

✅ Personalized support for patients and caregivers via our dedicated helpline
